

How to get to Glastonbury

Glastonbury is 135 miles (217 km) from London, 134 miles (215 km) from Birmingham, 73 miles (117 km) from Cardiff and 27 miles (43 km) south of Bristol.

Air

The nearest airport is Bristol Airport (BRS) which is 23 miles or 41 minutes by road from Glastonbury town centre.

From Bristol Airport you can hire a car, take a taxi or complete the journey to Glastonbury by bus.

- Car Hire – Several national car hire companies are based in the Car Rental Centre which is located in close proximity to the Silver Zone Car Park. More information on car hire from Bristol Airport can be found at Bristol Airport – Car Hire at Bristol Airport
- Taxi – Details of the taxi service available from Bristol Airport can be found at Bristol Airport – Getting to and from Bristol Airport by taxi Another, and possibly cheaper, option is to prearrange collection and drop-off from the airport with a local (Glastonbury) company that does airport transfers. A list of local businesses offering an airport transfer service can be found at Glastonbury Online – by Air
- Bus – The bus journey involves 2 buses and takes at least 1 hour 49 minutes total journey time. If this option is for you, catch the Bristol Airport Flyer Express (A1 route) from the airport to Bristol Bus Station and catch the 374/375/376 Mendip Xplorer bus to Glastonbury – First Bus timetables here

If you arrive in England via Heathrow Airport, Gatwick Airport or Stansted Airport see below.

Train

The nearest train station to Glastonbury is Castle Cary which is 14 miles or 24 minutes by road from Glastonbury town centre.

Two lines run through Castle Cary:

- Heart of Wessex Line – Bristol Temple Meads -> Weymouth Quay
- Reading to Taunton Line – London Paddington (Great Western Main Line) -> Taunton

The fastest journey time from London Paddington to Castle Cary is 1 hour 32 minutes.

If you wish to complete your journey from Castle Cary station to Glastonbury by bus, it involves 2 or 3 buses and will take at least 1 hour 9 minutes total journey time. The journey by public transport is lengthy for such a short distance and completing the journey by taxi is a better option.

From Castle Cary station you can take a taxi from one of the taxi operators that operate at or around the station:

- Anzford Cars – T: 07831249441
- Craig's Taxi – T: 07563612473
- Destination Travel – T: 01963 351168

Numbers for local (Castle Cary) taxi companies can also be found on the noticeboard at the entrance to the station.

Another option, as with the airport, is to prearrange a Glastonbury taxi to collect and drop you at the station. A list of Glastonbury taxi companies can be found at Glastonbury Online – by Taxi

If your journey to Glastonbury includes a train, you may come via Bristol Temple Meads station and the quickest way from here is via the 376 Mendip Xplorer bus to Glastonbury. The fastest journey time from London Paddington to Bristol Temple Meads is 1 hour 19 minutes.

Coach

If you plan to travel to Glastonbury by coach there are two coach operators to choose from:

- National Express – London Victoria Coach Station – WWW: National Express
- Berrys Coaches – London Hammersmith Bus Station – WWW: Berrys Coaches

Car

Glastonbury is just over 14 miles (23 km) from Junction 22 and 13 miles (21 km) from Junction 23 of the M5. The route from Junction 22 is a back road and is twisting and lumpy in places and sometimes flooded! so if you are coming from the North and prefer to stick to A roads continue South to Junction 23 to pick up the A39.

Two A roads pass through Glastonbury – A39 and A361. If you are coming to Glastonbury via the A303 (from London and the South-East) Glastonbury is just over 10 miles (16 km) from Podimore roundabout.

If you are driving from the London area, traffic permitting the fastest route is usually M25, M3, A303, A37.

Top Tip

When travelling to Glastonbury by car the fastest route will vary depending depending on the variable traffic conditions.

Use a SatNav that uses live data to ensure you are taking the fastest route or check Highways England latest traffic information at Highways England – our latest traffic information
