

Birdwatching Near Glastonbury

If enjoy a spot of birdwatching, Somerset really is a great place to visit. The county is packed with nature reserves that are home to an amazing variety of birds but where are the best places near Glastonbury for birdwatching?

- Catcott Complex

Somerset Wildlife Trust – Catcott Complex

The Welcome to Catcott leaflet provides details of trails and hides at Catcott.

- Greylake

RSPB – Greylake

The Greylake – Finding your way around leaflet provides details of trails and hides at Greylake.

- Ham Wall

RSPB – Ham Wall

The Ham Wall – Finding your way around leaflet provides details of trails and hides at Ham Wall.

- Shapwick Heath

Avalon Marshes – Shapwick Heath National Nature Reserve

A map showing hides at Shapwick Heath can be found here

- Westhay Moor

Somerset Wildlife Trust – Westhay Moor

The Welcome to Westhay Moor leaflet provides details of trails and hides at Westhay Moor.

If you want to explore other nature reserves near Glastonbury

this article will be of interest:

Nature Reserves In And Around Glastonbury

Do you know any great places for birdwatching near Glastonbury?

To book holiday accommodation in the Glastonbury area visit here